Dear Flower-lover:

I just wish you could have visited our gardens when tulips were in bloom.

Artist Nature truly painted a breath-taking, exclamation-producing scene. Almost every color of rainbow or sunset was there, from flaming red to lovely soft pink; from almost black to purest white; and in between are more tones and shades of color than you ever can imagine.

You would have walked up and down uncounted rows of these stately flowers, stopping here, admiring there, finding what suits you best, only to discard it for another "best." Never could you forget the gorgeous spectacle of these lovely, lovely flowers.

However, you can transfer much of this beauty to your own garden, where you can proudly revel in its loveliness next spring. Let your eyes "walk" from item to item in the catalog. Mere words cannot adequately describe their charm, so pause frequently and let your imagination help you choose color combinations that will bring you greatest satisfaction.

And why not order some "calendar bulbs"--those that bloom at different periods--and spread your spring pleasures? Note golden King Alfred daffodils, blue and white-belled scillas, dainty deep blue grape hyacinths, and vivid blue Dutch Iris.

We want to make every flower-lover an acquaintance and every customer a Friend. That's why every order receives such painstaking care, and is sent under absolute guarantee.

If you order and plant soon, your bulbs will produce better flowers.

Sincerely yours,

M. P. Perrin
